BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER

Submits a copy of the Municipal Council's Resolution agreeing to exempt the out-door subordinates of the Trade Board from payment of Cycle tax and requests sanction for inserting these sub-ordinates in the Schedule of taxes sanctioned in G.O. of the 28th November 1911.

NOTES AND ORDERS

The out-door subordinates of the Trade Board prayed that they might be exempted from payment of Cycle tax like the subordinates of the Municipality and the Municipal Council resolves to the effect that "the exemption may be

"be granted" to them. Thus, the exemptions proposed to be thereby granted to out-door subordinates of the Trade Boards is restricted to Cycle hire. The President's recommendation however seems to go further.

2 Another point is whether the addition now proposed to be made in the schedule has to be published under sec 60 (4) and objections, if any, invited. The rules themselves are declared to have been framed under sec 60 (1) (i). If the exemptions of the kind can be considered as coming within the purview of that section, no publication is necessary.

3 The proposal does not however seem to involve a material alteration of those rules. If otherwise, the following may be ordered to be inserted after the words — "employed on out-door duties" in sub-head (b) in Col: 5 against Cl: No III in the aforesaid schedule —

"and Cycles belonging to the out-door subordinates of the City Improvement Trust Boards."
